Conclusion

John 20:21

25 days, 25 people

“God called me to a time to pray for 25 of my close Muslim friends. God taught me many things through this time of prayer. One of my prayers is that my love would increase for my friends and that I would learn to love them like Christ loves them. ... It truly hurts to love someone when you know they don't know the truth. When you see them go through difficult times and don't have the hope of Jesus or eternal life.”
