Great Commission Day- Our church's participation in the Great Commission Day Offering on May 6 will help meet the physical and spiritual needs of lost, hurting, and overlooked people throughout the world. Together, our gifts are helping to expand Christ's Kingdom by

- Proclaiming the truth of Jesus Christ to those who have not heard
- Sending workers into the harvest—and keeping them there
- Baptizing and discipling new believers and grounding them in the Word of God
- Planting new churches among least-reached peoples
- Supplying critical medical care in desperate regions of the world
- Training and equipping future national church leaders
- Helping rebuild the lives of those devastated by war or natural disaster
- Carrying out dozens of other light-bearing ministries that point people to Jesus

Membership class- The final meeting of the membership class is today (April 29th) at 9:00 AM in Jonny's old office.

Prayer Request updates from Tim and Judy

- 1) They received a contract for the house in Orange City. The inspection revealed nothing alarming.
- 2) Their home in Bartlett sold in less than 24 hours after being placed on the market. They are working on the closing times on both properties.
- 3) There were mixed emotions when they announced the call to their current church. Happy for them, but sad to see them go. Their last Sunday in the Bartlett church will be May 20th.
- 4) Pray for the people of Alliance Bible Church as they begin the search process.
- 5) Pray for the Pofel family as they forge ahead in this next stage of their journey.
