The Orange City Area Food Pantry is preparing for its Thanksgiving distribution. Currently, we need your help in a couple of ways. (1) Discerning who from our congregation or sphere of influence is in need of a food box. I need to know the size of each family and which ones are in need of diaper vouchers no later than Thursday, November 10. Please email (angela.worthley@gmail.com) or text (712-441-5445) me with your ideas about who would benefit from this gift. If the diet of the recipient's family is restricted due to food allergies, accommodations can be made. Budgets can be stretched thin for a variety of reasons (job change, physical or mental illness, unforeseen expenses, changes in household location or size, etc.). I encourage you to think outside the box and help eliminate the shame many of us feel when we need help. My prayer is that we're honest with each other about difficult circumstances, are willing to hear needs when voiced, and feel comfortable receiving assistance when offered. Anyone who is navigating a tough season is eligible for this distribution.(2) We'll need to pack our boxes at American Reformed Church the Saturday morning of November 19th and deliver to the families. Let me know if you're willing and able. Thanks for being a blessing! Angela
